

I'll Praise Your Name

(Tune: He Leadeth Me)

1. To You, Oh, God, My praise I give, For in Your care I want to live,
2. The ris- ing sun, the o- ceans deep, The fer- tile soil, the foods we reap;
3. A peace- ful night to rest in bed, To read the Words that You have said,
4. You gave Your Son, Your on- ly Son, To die for me; Your will was done.
5. I'll sing Your prais- es ev'- ry morn, Though some will frown and oth- ers scorn,

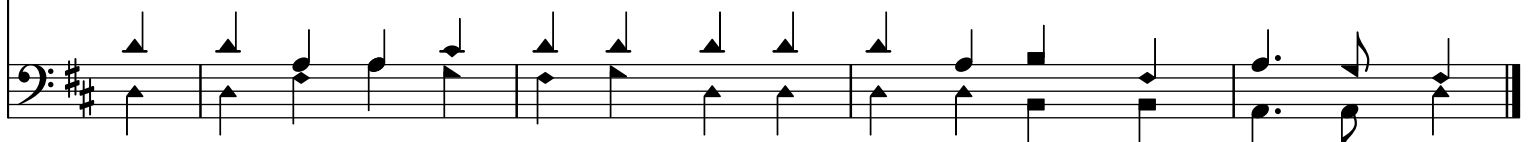

Your words cre- a- ted ev'- ry- thing; To praise You, Lord, I glad- ly sing.
You gave me these, You real- ly care, I'll praise You for Your love so rare.
I'll praise You for the Ho- ly Book, Your will I'll learn if I just look.
Un- worth- i- ly, I hide my face, I'll praise You for Your sav- ing grace.
I'll praise You for Your love and care, And Jes- us' name I'll glad- ly wear.

I'll praise Your Name; I'll praise Your Name, My head held high, there will be no shame.

Then af- ter death, I'll sing al- ways; At home, dear LORD, I'll sing your praise.

Words: Rozita D. Martin, 2007

Music: William D. Bradbury, 1864

Arr: Diana Nelson, 2015

© Rozita D. Martin, 2007. All rights reserved.