

Lamentations

The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. (Lamentations 3:25)

1. Be-fore her fall, Je-ru-sa-lem Was crowd-ed with most sin-ful men;
2. The les-son is so plain and clear, That ev'-ry per-son needs to hear:

Al-might-y God could not ig-nore The fla-grant sins that He de-plored.
Ca-lam-i-ties could soon as-sail And lam-en-ta-tions could pre-vail.

The peo-ple groaned and searched for bread But did not think to turn their heads
So fol-low Je-re-mi-ah's call And plead-ings of a-pos-tle Paul

And fol-low Je-re-mi-ah's call, But ra-ther wait-ed for the fall.
To turn to God ere it's too late, And walk up-on the path that's straight.

Chorus

Love con-tin-ued to a-bide; Mer-cies were re-newed.
 Love con-tin-ues to a-bide; Mer-cies are re-newed.
 God's love con-tin-ued to a-bide; His mer-cies were re-newed.
 God's love con-tin-ues to a-bide; His mer-cies are re-newed.

Sal-va-tion He sup-plied Bless-ings they ac-crued.
 Sal-va-tion He sup-plies Bless-ings we ac-crue.
 Sal-va-tion to them He sup-plied And bless-ings they ac-crued.
 Sal-va-tion to us He sup-plies And bless-ings we ac-crue.
