

Our Anchor

*Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.
(Hebrews 13:8, ESV)*

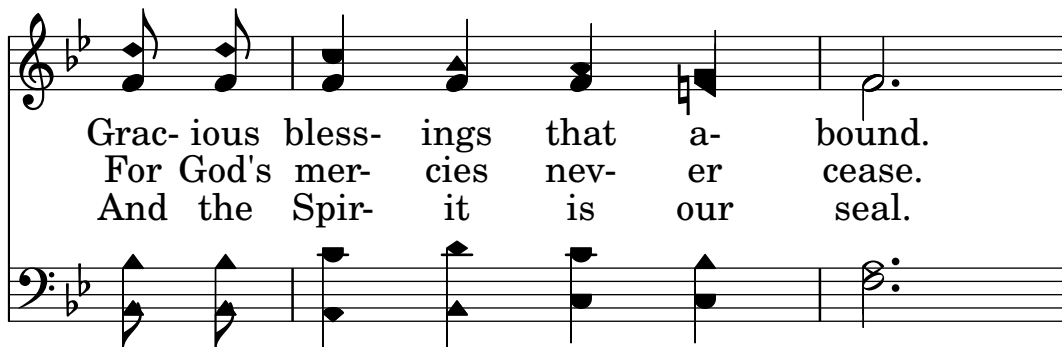

1. A- mid this swift- ly chang- ing world
2. When chal- leng- es and chang- es come
3. God's prom- is- es are won- der- ful

When a calm can- not be found,
To dis- tract us from all peace,
And His Word's our sword and shield;

God gives us hope and faith and love,
Let's set our minds on things a- bove,
Christ's con- stant love's our liv- ing hope,

Grac- ious bless- ings that a- bound.
For God's mer- cies nev- er cease.
And the Spir- it is our seal.

He is our an-chor in the storm,

The first system of musical notation for the hymn. It consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff, both in a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics "He is our an-chor in the storm," are written below the treble staff. The music features a steady rhythm with chords and single notes.

The foun- da- tion of our days,

The second system of musical notation. The lyrics "The foun- da- tion of our days," are written below the treble staff. The music continues with similar chordal and melodic patterns.

The sol- id rock on which we stand,

The third system of musical notation. The lyrics "The sol- id rock on which we stand," are written below the treble staff. The music maintains the same harmonic and rhythmic structure.

And our cor- ner- stone of faith.

The fourth and final system of musical notation. The lyrics "And our cor- ner- stone of faith." are written below the treble staff. The system concludes with a double bar line.
